PAIRING WINE & FASHION

The Designer: Giorgio Armani
The Essence: Luxurious, stately
The Wine: Barolo
The Essence: Barolo is considered the king of Italian wines, and Giorgio Armani is among the highest-ranking royalty of Italian designers. His clothes are imbued with a sense of charm, elegance and subtle seduction, all of which are the hallmarks of a finely crafted and well-aged Barolo. The pinnacle of wines made from the Nebbiolo grape, Barolos will hold in your cellar for many years, just like an Armani piece will remain a mainstay in your wardrobe.

NOTABLES IN FASHION AND WINE

Wine appreciation takes on a whole new meaning with Nadia Zenato's wine-themed jewelry. While other family members focus on Zenato's winery, Nadia takes inspiration—and materials—from the world of wine to create bracelets, necklaces, rings and earrings that feature corks and bottle toppers.
